

Incentive Payment Scheme for Research Publications/Patents

As an effort to strengthen the research culture at the Postgraduate Institute of Science (PGIS), it is proposed to introduce an incentive payment (award) scheme for researchers who have produced publications in refereed journals, and patents. The following guidelines shall be used in this regard.

Category I: Publications in Science Citation Indexed (SCI) journals (Main list)

Category II: Publications in Science Citation Indexed (SCI) journals (Expanded list)

Category III: Publications in other refereed journals

Guidelines:

- The full award shall be Rs. 8,000/= for a publication in Category I, Rs. 5,000/= for a publication in Category II and Rs. 2,000/= for a publication in Category III.
- The full award for a patent shall be Rs. 5,000/=
- The award shall be equally shared among the authors of the publication.
- Authors must have used the affiliation of PGIS in their publication/patent to qualify for an award.

Note: This incentive scheme will be effective for publications/patents that appear after 01st January 2013.
