Format:

Abstract should be limited to one A4-sized page with a left margin of 3.0 cm, and all other margins kept at 2.5 cm. The font "Times New Roman" of size 12 should be used with single line spacing. All abstracts must be written and submitted in English using Microsoft Word (2007 or later)

- British spelling must be used throughout the text.
- Abbreviations should be cited in full at first occurrence, except for standard abbreviations.
- Non-English words and Technical Terms: Should be in italics.
- The International System of Units (SI) should be used, and a single space must be left between the figure and the unit (Example: 25 cm).

Titel:

The title should be brief and reflect the study carried out. If scientific names of organisms are included they should be written in uppercase italics. If common or vernacular names follow the scientific name, they should be included in parentheses. The letters should be bold uppercase, and center aligned. There should be no line space above the title. One line space should be left below the title.

Name(s) and Affiliation(s) of Author(s):

These should be in bold, lowercase letters (except initials and the first letter of the name/s) and center aligned. Each initial should be followed by a full-stop without space. The presenter's name should be underlined, and the corresponding author's name should be indicated by an asterisk at the end. One line space should be left between the name/s and affiliation/s. Corresponding author's email address should be indicated after the authors' affiliations.

Affiliations should be in italics, lowercase letters (with uppercase letters where necessary) and center aligned. Wherever the work has been carried out in several Institutes/Departments, the addresses should be numbered using a superscript at the beginning of each address and the respective author should be marked using a superscript at the end of the author's name. A two-line space should be left between affiliations and the body of the text.

Body of the Abstract:

Body should include Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion and Conclusions; should be written, within a single paragraph without sub-titles/sub-headings (the first line of the paragraph should not be indented) and justified.
